Chief Orator at the Confederate
Reunion Exercises.

MILITARY AND CIVIC PARADE

The Stonewall Brigade Band
Leads Line of March.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., June 9.—Governor Montague was the chief orator of the day at the Confederate memorial exercises here to-day. He was introduced by Colonel R. S. Turk, of Staunton. The appearance of the Governor was greeted with great applause. His speech was one of the most eloquent and patriotic that has ever been made over the graves of the heroic dead who rest in Thornrose. His speech was greeted with spontaneous applause and enthusiasm throughout. After the speaking, the exercises were concluded by a salute of three volleys by the militia.

The memorial parade under Chief Marshal J. L. Clemmer, assisted by Chief of Police Simpson, formed on Main Street, in the center of the city. The line of march was taken up with the Stonewall Brigade Band in the lead, followed by the mounted officers, the West Augusta Guards and Staunton Rifles, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Perry; the old soldiers and the guests of honor. They marched to Thornrose Cemetery, where Captain Carter's monument delivered a short address, followed by the Governor.

MANN IN LURAY. Presents His Claims to Large Crowd at Luray.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LURAY, VA., June 9.—Judge William Hodges Mann, author of the famous Mann liquor law and Democratic candidate for the gubernatorial nomination for Virginia, addressed a large crowd of voters in Luray to-night. Judge Mann's stirring speech was devoted to a discussion of public schools, public roads and an explanation of the Mann law.

He advocated better pay for school teachers and favored the appointment of a road commission with officers in each congressional district. He said he was elected Governor, he would recommend an appropriation of $500,000 to the public schools of the State. Judge Mann showed the practical operation of the Mann law, claiming that it had closed 70 saloons in the State since it became effective and had increased the revenue of the State $25,000.

Democratic Candidate. GATE CITY, VA., June 9.—Mr. M. M. Starnes, who runs a large mercantile business four miles from Gate City, is making the race on the Democratic ticket for the House of Delegates. For some time Democratic leaders have been urging him to consent to run. He is very popular and is a man of great energy. The party will readily unite in his support.

Mr. B. F. Johnson, who was formerly clerk of the County Court, and a very popular one, is the Democratic candidate for clerk. His party is already united on him. He has many supporters among the Republicans. It is not at all probable that either Mr. Starnes or Mr. Johnson will have any opposition in the primary, and since the Democrats got greatly the advantage of the Republicans in the election of both of them are exceedingly favorable. The Democrats were never so harmonious as they are now, while the Republicans have a dozen candidates for clerk and are by no means in harmony.

UNTIL CURED BY CUTICURA

"For twenty-five years I suffered agony from a terrible humor, completely covering my head, neck, and shoulders, discharging matter of such offensiveness to sight and smell, that I became an object of dread. I consulted the most able doctors far and near, to no avail. Then I got Cuticura, and in a surprisingly short time I was completely cured. For this I thank Cuticura, and advise all those suffering from skin humors to get it and end their misery at once. S. P. Keyes, 149 Congress Street, Boston, Mass."

He was arrested here and held for the Maryland authorities. The Republic is managed by boys. The plaintiff is the negro who alleges that he was deprived of a vote in the congressional election of November 4, 1902, by the defendants, who were election judges in the Huntersville District. The plea is to be filed amended because the original plea was filled with errors, which the amended plea is supposed to correct. The plaintiff demands $5,000 each from the judges, because he says they prevented him, a negro, from voting. The Republicans here ridicule the suit, but compliment Captain Wise for the large fees he is credited with collecting from the negroes to promote it.

SELECT THE PLANS ON MONDAY NIGHT

Finance Committee Will Also
Choose Site for New High School.

The Committee on Finance will meet at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon for the purpose of adopting plans for the new high school building and to determine upon a site for the structure.

While it is yet problematical to some extent what will be done in either case, it is likely that the Woman's College site will be selected. As to the plans, it is a very important matter, and those formerly before the joint committee will be considered.

From all that can be learned, those submitted by Mr. Charles K. Bryant and heretofore tentatively adopted are quite likely to be chosen in the end. One of the best posted men in the Finance Committee holds to this view, and he imparted it to a Times-Dispatch man last night. At any rate, the matter will be determined and reported to the Council at this meeting.
